Manulife 宏利

Forge a financial strategy for tomorrow's ambitions Manulife's well-rounded policy services

For Prestige Achiever Insurance Plan and Genesis Centurion Insurance Plan

Your future is brimming with potential. What you need is a long-term financial strategy with exponential impact, and ample time for your wealth to accelerate.

Whatever your future holds – whether that's a new business venture, an overseas education for your child, a golden retirement, or an intergenerational legacy – we'll help you implement a global strategy that takes the complexity out of long-term planning and turns complex planning into a well-coordinated process.

Manulife's mix-and-match solutions are designed to support your goals, so you can focus on today with full confidence in a future rich with possibility.

This booklet outlines your options. Once you're ready, talk to us, and we'll help you customize your legacy planning so you can achieve your goals.

Flexible access and control during your lifetime

› FlexiPay Withdrawal
Flexibility to tailor your policy payment options 4

› Empowered Access for Loved Ones
Empower a family member to access your policy value when it matters 5

› Policy Split
Split your policy to meet multiple goals at once 7

Safeguarding against life's uncertainties

› Incapacity Care Service
Appoint a family member to act on your pre-set instruction to manage the policy when you become incapacitated 9

Passing on your legacy

Ensure your loved ones receive what you intended smoothly

› Death benefit settlement options
Set personalized death benefit payout instructions for every beneficiary 10

Keep your policy growing

› Contingent life insured
Smooth transition to a contingent life insured 12

› Successive policyowner
Keep your policy alive by appointing a trusted successor 12

› Legacy Choice*
Precise wealth transfer with control over timing for your chosen one 13

Ensure your loved ones receive what you intended smoothly and keep your policy growing

› InheritPlus
Strategic legacy planning with control over ownership and distribution 15

* Applicable to policies issued in Hong Kong only

A. FlexiPay Withdrawal

FlexiPay Withdrawal[1] gives you the flexibility to manage your policy payments with ease.

Beyond one-off withdrawals, starting from the 3rd policy anniversary, or the end of the premium payment period of the basic plan (whichever is later), under flexible payments[2,3,4] you can set up a standing instruction for regular withdrawals[5], choosing the withdrawal amount, frequency, and payment period.

Meanwhile, starting from the 3rd policy anniversary, you can also arrange specified payments directly to a beloved family member[7] or a recognized organization[8] ('Designated Recipient')[9,10,11], such as a retirement community[#] or charity, ensuring your policy supports what matters most.

Additionally, overseas payments[12] lets you transfer funds to an international account in eligible region and jurisdiction[13] – helpful for handling overseas obligations.

Points to note

[#] A retirement community must have a valid Licence for Residential Care Home for the Elderly, or an equivalent licence from a jurisdiction approved by the Company.

It is a one-stop living option for older adults, offering including, but not limited to:

- your own residence
- meals, social activities, transportation, and housekeeping
- access to doctors, medication, and rehabilitation services
- support when you need help with daily living
- nursing care if you become ill or require long-term care (on-site or at a partner facility)

In short, it's a community that adapts to your health needs over time.

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to FlexiPay Withdrawal , please refer to Section A of the 'Terms & Conditions'

B. Empowered Access for Loved Ones[1] First-in-market[^]

Starting from the 3rd policy anniversary, you can empower a trusted family member[7] ('Designated Requester')[9,11] to act on your behalf and withdraw[2] a portion of the policy value based on your pre-set instructions, allowing you to plan ahead and care for your loved ones' needs.

Specifically, you can specify:

- The maximum percentage of the policy value that the Designated Requester can withdraw under each policy – up to 50% of the total cash value per policy; and
- Whether the Designated Requester is allowed to make withdrawals by reducing the notional amount of the plan.

[^] The description about this policy service being 'first-in-market' is based on comparisons with other publicly available long-term participating life insurance products with a savings element issued by Hong Kong's major life insurance companies for individual customers as at January 4, 2026.

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to Empowered Access for Loved Ones, please refer to Section B of the 'Terms & Conditions'

How does it work?

As the policyowner, you may

FlexiPay Withdrawal[1,2,3,4]

Flexible payments

enjoy flexibility with scheduled withdrawals standing instruction for regular withdrawals[5]

decide payment amount, frequency & period or

one-off withdrawal

Specified payments

direct payments from your policy to a Designated Recipient[7,8,9,11] payment to a Designated Recipient, e.g.

- a family member[7]
- retirement community where the insured or policyowner is staying
- charity[8]

Overseas payments[12]

make withdrawal requests and arrange payments from your policy directly payment to a local bank account in Hong Kong

- direct credit (autopay)
- Faster Pay System (FPS)
- cheque

payment to an overseas bank account in eligible region or jurisdiction[13]

Empowered Access for Loved Ones[1]

assign a family member[7] as the Designated Requester[8,9,11]

authorize the maximum % (up to 50%) of policy value that can be withdrawn[2]

Designated Requester requests & receives the payment

C. Policy Split

Starting from the 5th policy anniversary or the end of the premium payment period (whichever is later), you may choose to split your policy[1,2] to set aside funds for different objectives. Based on the split percentage of the notional amount requested by you, the notional amount, policy values, and benefits will be transferred to the split policy(ies) proportionally, subject to rounding, with the same commencement date as your policy.

If you exercised the realization option[3] under your policy before the policy split, the aggregate realization percentage applicable to your policy prior to the split will be applied to the split policy(ies) after the split.

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to policy split , please refer to Section C of the 'Terms & Conditions'.

How does it work?[4]

	Before policy split	After policy split
	Policy A	Policy B	Policy C
% of Notional amount	100%	20%	80%
Notional amount	USD200,000	USD40,000	USD160,000
Guaranteed cash value	USD200,000	USD40,000	USD160,000
Non-guaranteed terminal bonus[4]	USD400,000	USD80,000	USD320,000
Accumulated realized terminal bonus[4]	USD50,000	USD10,000	USD40,000
Total surrender value	USD650,000	USD130,000	USD520,000
Beneficiary	A	B	C

In the unfortunate event of the policyowner's demise, beneficiaries B and C will be paid the death benefit, which will include any saving elements that have built up (if applicable), under policies B and C respectively.

D. Incapacity Care Service

Incapacity Care Service[1,2,3] lets you appoint[4] a trusted family member[5] ('Designated Person') in advance to act on your behalf if you become mentally or physically incapacitated, helping manage your policy and providing your loved ones immediate financial relief without the need to go through lengthy and complicated legal processes.

If you ever become incapacitated as a result of any of the designated illnesses[6] listed below:

- Apallic syndrome
- Coma
- Loss of independent existence
- Major head trauma
- Mental incapacity
- Paralysis
- Terminal illness

How does it work?

The Designated Person will act on your behalf and execute one of the policy management instructions below as pre-selected by you:

Option 1

Ownership transfer[7]
Transfer policy ownership[8] to the Designated Person.

Option 2

One-off withdrawal from the policy[9,10,11]
Withdraw[12] a certain percentage (as designated by you) ('Percentage') of the policy value[8], with the proceeds paid to the Designated Person

Points to note

- You cannot arrange Incapacity Care Service (Option 1 – Ownership Transfer), InheritPlus and successive policyowner (with Legacy Choice*) under the same policy.

* Applicable to policies issued in Hong Kong only

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to Incapacity Care Service, please refer to Section D of the 'Terms & Conditions'.

E. Death benefit settlement options[1]

You can choose simple, easy-to-manage alternative[2] death benefit settlement options to help ensure the financial security of your family members.

Apart from the default option of having the death benefit proceeds[3] paid to your beneficiary(ies)[4] in a lump sum ('lump sum payment'), you can choose an alternative death benefit settlement option and customize[5] it in a way that best reflects your wishes. Starting from the 2nd policy anniversary, you may even select a different settlement option for each beneficiary, giving you greater flexibility and control over how your legacy is passed on.

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to death benefit settlement options, please refer to Section E of the 'Terms & Conditions'.

How does it work?

Deferred lump sum payment[6]

You can choose to:

- ☑ specify a payment date; or
- ☑ specify a payment date at the end of a certain period of time (e.g. X years Y months) from the death of the life insured.

or

Customize your death benefit payout by specifying full or partial payment by instalments

Full payment by instalments

You can choose to have the death benefit settled by instalments at a specified fixed percentage[7] and payout frequency (monthly / quarterly / semi-annually / annually).

Lump sum + By instalments

Initial amount to be first settled with a lump sum. You can choose to have the death benefit partially settled by instalments at a specified fixed percentage[7] and payout frequency (monthly / quarterly / semi-annually / annually).

Further customize your instalment payout options

Deferred payment[6]

You can choose to:

- specify a start date; or
- specify a payment date at the end of a certain period of time (X years Y months) from the death of the life insured.

Increasing instalments[8,9]

You can choose to have the instalments increased annually by a certain percentage[7] specified by you.

Maximum period of instalments[8,9]

You can choose the maximum period of instalments.

The remaining amount will be settled with a lump sum at the end of the maximum period of instalments you have selected.

Any unpaid balance of the death benefit proceeds will be left on deposit to accumulate non-guaranteed interest[10]. All accumulated interest (if any) will be paid together with the final payment.

F. Continuing your policy

Contingent life insured

If a policyowner appoints a contingent life insured[1,2] after policy issuance and the current life insured passes away, the contingent life insured may apply to become the new life insured[3]. The change takes effect upon the Company's acceptance[4].

Successive policyowner

If a policyowner appoints a successive policyowner[5,6] after policy issuance and the current policyowner passes away, the successive policyowner may apply to become the new policyowner.

Appointing a successive policyowner ensures your legacy is managed by someone you trust and keeps policy funds accessible. Otherwise, if you pass away without a successive policyowner, your policy would become part of your estate. It could take months to go through the probate process. What's more, the new policyowner may not be someone you intended.

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to the contingent life insured and successive policyowner, please refer to Section F of the 'Terms & Conditions'.

G. Legacy Choice[1] (applicable to polices issued in Hong Kong only)

With Legacy Choice[2,3,4], you can also arrange for the policy to be transferred at a designated date or a designated age of the successive policyowner[5,6,7] (must be age 18 or above) by pre-appointing an interim policyowner[6,8]. You will therefore enjoy the peace of mind of knowing that the value, protection, and wealth growth potential of the policy will be passed on to the heir of your choice.

You may authorize the interim policyowner to exercise one or both of the following administration rights[9]:

- Withdraw policy value[10], subject to the maximum percentage specified by you for each policy year or for each policy.
- Access any available option or benefit related to the realization of terminal bonus or the cash value of special bonus (if applicable), as specified by you.

Upon your passing[11,12], the interim policyowner may exercise the above rights until the designated date or until the successive policyowner reaches the designated age. At that point, the interim policyowner's administrative rights will cease, and ownership of the policy will transfer[13], provided that the successive policyowner applies for a change of policy ownership and becomes the new policyowner.

Points to note

- If the policyowner is also the life insured, a contingent life insured must be appointed[14]. If the policyowner/life insured passes away, the contingent life insured will become the life insured[15], and the policy will remain active.
- You cannot arrange successive policyowner (with Legacy Choice)[16], InheritPlus and Incapacity Care Service (Option 1 – Ownership Transfer) under the same policy.

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to Legacy Choice, please refer to Section G of the 'Terms & Conditions'.

How does it work?

Current policyowner and life insured

Mr. Wong

- Contingent life insured: May (his 3-year-old granddaughter)
- Successive policyowner[5,6]: May (when she reaches age 18[7])
- Interim policyowner[6,8]: Peter (his son)

Mr. Wong nominated a contingent life insured, a successive policyowner and set up Legacy Choice[1,2,3,4]

Mr. Wong passed away

What happened next?

Legacy Choice

Mr. Wong

Transfer of policy ownership to Peter[12].

Interim policyowner

Peter

Peter becomes the interim policyowner[13] with policy administration right(s)[9] previously granted by Mr. Wong.

New life insured

May

May, the contingent life insured, becomes the new life insured[14, 15]

Successive policyowner

May at age 18

Policy ownership is transferred to the successive policyowner, May, once she reaches age 18.

Interim policyowner's policy administration right(s) end automatically.

The policy remains in force and is passed on.

H. InheritPlus

Life planning goes beyond today. With InheritPlus[1,2,3], starting from the 3rd policy anniversary, your legacy can seamlessly continue to the next generation according to your pre-set instructions.

In the unfortunate event of the life insured's passing:

- A designated portion of the policy can be split[4] into new policy(ies) ('New Policy(ies)')[5,6] for the contingent life insured(s)[7,8], subject to their acceptance.
- The rest will be paid as death benefits[9] to your chosen beneficiary(ies), with the death benefit settlement option customizable for each individual beneficiary.

Points to note

- The aggregate allocation for the New Policy(ies) and the beneficiary(ies) must equal 100% of the notional amount of the original policy[10].
- For each of the New Policy(ies), you need to designate a contingent life insured and assign a successive policyowner for that contingent life insured[7].
- The successive policyowner must not be a minor.
- You may designate up to five contingent lives insured(s), five successive policyowner(s), and five beneficiary(ies)[7].
- You cannot arrange InheritPlus, successive policyowner (with Legacy Choice*) and Incapacity Care Service (Option 1 – Ownership Transfer) under the same policy.

* Applicable to policies issued in Hong Kong only

For detailed terms and conditions applicable to InheritPlus, please refer to Section H of the 'Terms & Conditions'.

How does it work?

Current policyowner and life insured

Mr. Wong

He named a successive policyowner for each contingent life insured.

Through InheritPlus[1,2,3], Mr. Wong plans to split his policy in two for continuation, with the remainder paid as death benefits

Mr. Wong passed away

What happened next?

Allocating the policy [4,5,6]			Death benefit settlement
New Policy 1		New Policy 2	Beneficiary
Peter (Mr. Wong's son)	Contingent life insured[7,8]	May (Mr. Wong's granddaughter)	Mr. Wong's wife
Peter	Successive policyowner (must be over 18)[7,8]	Peter	Death benefit settlement options customized by Mr. Wong[9]

Aggregate allocation = 100%[10] of the notional amount of the original policy

Case 1

I've worked hard to live comfortably, and I want that peace of mind to last. Planning ahead means my retirement, my health, and even my dog are cared for — without burdening anyone I love.

Policyowner and life insured

Sandy, 35, is single and living comfortably — but she knows planning ahead is essential. A devoted animal lover with a dog by her side, and without direct family ties, she seeks flexible solutions for retirement security, health protection, and a lasting legacy.

Retirement made simple

FlexiPay Withdrawal

(See Terms and Conditions section A)

Flexible payments

Specified payment to retirement community

At 60, Sandy moves into a retirement community (see Clause A8). She has set up regular standing instructions (see Clauses A5 and A10) for automatic policy withdrawals, paid directly to the retirement home (see Clauses A7, A8, A9 and A11) — ensuring her living arrangements are covered with ease.

Trusted support when uncertainty strikes

Incapacity Care Service

(See Terms and Conditions section D)

Sandy

Designated Person

Nephew Tom

With a family history of cancer, Sandy worries about her retirement plans causing trouble for relatives. She sets up policy instructions and appoints (see Clause D4) her nephew (see Clause D5) Tom as her Designated Person under Incapacity Care Service (see Clauses D1, D2 and D3), giving him a one-off right to withdraw 50% of the policy value if she becomes incapacitated.

50% policy value

At 80, Sandy is diagnosed with terminal illness (see Clause D6), Tom requests a one-time withdrawal (See Clause D10 and D11) to help cover Sandy's long-term care needs.

Sandy passed away at age 90

Pass on more than wealth - pass on goodwill

Death benefit settlement options

(see Terms and Conditions section E)

Sandy's policy

One-off donation to an animal shelter (see Clause E3)

Lump-sum death benefit to Tom 1 year after Sandy's passing. (see Clause E6)

Age 60 — 80 — 90

The case is hypothetical and for illustrative purposes only. All services mentioned are subject to terms and conditions and administrative rules which may be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice.

Case 2

I wanted to make sure that even when I'm gone, my family's future is secure and their dreams can continue without worry.

Policyowner and life insured

John, 40, is the pillar of his family — a devoted husband and caring father. As a mid-level manager in a tech company, he now feels the weight of responsibility for his family. With economic uncertainty and industry shifts, John is focused on stabilizing his finances and building a safety net so big changes won't disrupt his family's life.

Seamless support for overseas studies

FlexiPay Withdrawal

(See Terms and Conditions section A)

Standing instruction for overseas payments

To support his daughter who is studying overseas, John set up standing instructions (under flexible payments) (see Clause A5) for overseas payments (see Clauses A12 and A13) to her international account. His policy automatically transfers HKD5,000 overseas monthly, helping to cover her daily expenses with ease.

John passed away at 60 due to cancer

Continuing care beyond life

InheritPlus

(see Terms and Conditions section H)

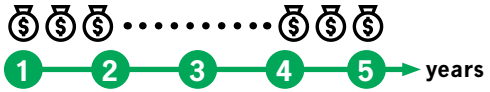
Through InheritPlus, the policy is divided into two portions for Jonh's wife and daughter, with the remaining amount paid as a death benefit to his elderly father.

Death benefit settlement options (see Clause H9)

John's policy

25%

Beneficiary



John's father, as the beneficiary, will receive the corresponding death benefit. Through the death benefit settlement option chosen by John, the payout is distributed monthly over 5 years.

Policy split and succession

Policy 1

25%
(see Clauses H4, H5 and H6)

Wife
Policy 1's policyowner and life insured
(see Clauses H7 and H8)

Policy 2

50%
(see Clauses H4, H5 and H6)

Daughter
Policy 2's policyowner and life insured
(see Clauses H7 and H8)

Aggregate allocation = 100% of the notional amount of the original policy (see Clause H10)

Age 40 60

The case is hypothetical and for illustrative purposes only. All services mentioned are subject to terms and conditions and administrative rules which may be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice.

Terms and Conditions

A. FlexiPay Withdrawal and B. Empowered Access for Loved Ones

1. FlexiPay Withdrawal (flexible payments, specified payments and overseas payments) and Empowered Access for Loved Ones are only applicable to Genesis Centurion Insurance Plan and Prestige Achiever Insurance Plan ('Designated Plans'). It is an administrative arrangement and not a product feature of the Designated Plans. The acceptance of any application for or change of FlexiPay Withdrawal or Empowered Access for Loved Ones is at the Company's sole and absolute discretion. It is subject to our prevailing administrative rules and conditions, as well as terms and conditions outlined below which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for the latest administrative rules.

2. Under FlexiPay Withdrawal and Empowered Access for Loved Ones, the withdrawal amount will first be paid from (1) any balance of accumulated guaranteed benefits, including but not limited to any guaranteed cash payments (if any), and subsequently be paid from (2) any balance of accumulated non-guaranteed benefits, including but not limited to any annual dividends (if any), non-guaranteed income and realized terminal bonus or realized special bonus (if any). Any remaining amount will be withdrawn from (3) the guaranteed cash value and non-guaranteed terminal bonus or non-guaranteed cash value of the special bonus (if any) in proportion through reduction of the notional amount. If the withdrawal triggers a reduction of notional amount, it will be subject to the applicable minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium requirements of the Designated Plans, and any indebtedness will be deducted from the withdrawal amount that is to be paid. Kindly note that the aforementioned components for calculating the total withdrawal amount may not be applicable to your policy.

3. You can apply for, change or cancel FlexiPay Withdrawal by submitting a written application in a prescribed format required by us, once the service becomes available. Any changes or cancellation will take effect on the next payment date upon our approval and the fulfillment of our prevailing administrative rules, which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice.

4. Any request to withdraw policy value from your policy under FlexiPay Withdrawal and Empowered Access for Loved Ones (including but not limited to the amount of each withdrawal payment, the frequency of payments and the method of payment) is subject to the choices made available by us under this service and our prevailing rules at the time of your application.

5. Only one active standing instruction for regular withdrawals, under flexible payments within FlexiPay Withdrawal, is allowed per policy. For the avoidance of doubt, either Easy Choice or standing instruction for regular withdrawals is allowed at a time.

6. FlexiPay Withdrawal and/or Empowered Access for Loved Ones will be terminated if:
   i. The withdrawal ends in accordance with the request;
   ii. The policyowner submits a cancel request;
   iii. Payment made to the recipient is unsuccessful;
   iv. In case of no notional amount change, the accumulated guaranteed and/or non-guaranteed benefits are insufficient to cover the requested withdrawal payment amount; In case of notional amount change, the notional amount of the policy falls below the minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium requirements of the Designated Plans;
   v. There is a change of ownership, split of policy, or an exercise of currency switch option;
   vi. Death of policyowner, life insured, Designated Recipient (applicable to specific payments under FlexiPay Withdrawal) and/or Designated Requester (applicable to Empowered Access for Loved Ones);
   vii. (Applicable to specific payments under FlexiPay Withdrawal) The previously registered organization (see Clause 8) is no longer available or no longer holds a valid licence for Residential Care Home for the Elderly, or an equivalent licence in its jurisdiction;
   viii. The policy is terminated; or
   ix. (Applicable to overseas payments under FlexiPay Withdrawal) The payout country is not among the eligible regions and jurisdictions accepted by us;

   whichever happens first.

7. The Designated Recipient or Designated Requester must be your family member who has reached age 18 or above and approved by us. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for more information.

8. The Designated Recipient can also be a recognized organization which includes:
   i. Retirement community which must have a valid licence as a Residential Care Home for the Elderly, or an equivalent licence from a jurisdiction approved by the Company, and such Residential Care Home must be located in an eligible region and jurisdiction under overseas payments (see Clause 15). We only recognize the retirement community in which the life insured and/or policyowner resides; or
   ii. Registered charitable institution in Hong Kong.

   For the avoidance of doubt, Designated Recipient can be an Individual or a recognized organization while Designated Requester must be an Individual.

9. The Designated Recipient or Designated Requester must meet our eligibility requirements to be determined by us from time to time at our sole discretion, and must satisfy our due diligence requirements, the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing Ordinance and any other applicable laws and guidelines.

10. A standing instruction for regular withdrawals under FlexiPay Withdrawal is only allowed under specific payments. For the avoidance of doubt, a standing instruction for regular withdrawals is not allowed under Empower Access for Loved Ones.

11. The policyowner can appoint, change and cancel a Designated Recipient and Designated Requester by submitting a written application in a prescribed format required by us. Any changes or cancellation will take effect upon our approval and the fulfillment of our prevailing administrative rules, which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice. Only 1 Designated Recipient and 1 Designated Requester can be assigned for each policy, while the Designated Recipient and Designated Requester can be different.

12. For overseas payments under FlexiPay Withdrawal, any charges, including but not limited to administrative fees, bank charges or foreign exchange rate difference, shall be borne by the policyowner(s). The policyowner(s) should carefully consider potential currency risks. Foreign-currency exchange rates may fluctuate depending on factors such as designated regions, jurisdictions, and the bank processing the payment. The risk of changes in the exchange rate may cause a financial loss to the policyowner(s).

13. For overseas payments under FlexiPay Withdrawal, the eligible regions and jurisdictions are subject to the regions and jurisdictions made available by us under this service and to our prevailing rules at the time of your application.

14. Any reduction in notional amount will reduce your future benefits including but not limited to the guaranteed cash value, terminal bonus, non-guaranteed special bonus (if any), any guaranteed cash payment (if the reduction in notional amount occurs before such guaranteed cash payment is payable under the policy) (if any), death benefit and accidental death benefit of the basic plan (if applicable). The notional amount after the reduction must meet the minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium requirement which we set from time to time without giving you notice. When the withdrawal results in reaching the minimum notional amount and/or premium, the actual withdrawal amount may be less than the amount calculated based on the percentage of surrender value as designated by you.

15. By making withdrawal(s), the future benefits under the policy will be reduced.

C. Policy Split

1. Policy split service is only offered to designated plans as determined by us from time to time. It is an administrative arrangement and is not part of the designated plans' feature. The acceptance of any policy split application is at our sole and absolute discretion subject to the policyowner's fulfillment of our prevailing administrative rules which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice.

2. Please note that all policies after splitting must fulfill the minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium requirement of the designated plan. All outstanding debts (if any) must be settled before we approve the application for a policy split.

3. Please refer to the relevant product brochure(s) for details on terminal bonus and terminal bonus realization, if applicable.

4. It is assumed that the policy fulfils all our prevailing requirements of the policy split service. Figures shown in this case are hypothetical and are for illustrative purpose only. Actual figures under your policy upon policy split may vary significantly depending on the designated plan you are holding. For your own illustrations, please contact your Manulife insurance advisor.

D. Incapacity Care Service

1. Incapacity Care Service is applicable only to designated plans. It is an administrative arrangement and not a feature of the designated plans. The acceptance of any application for or change of Incapacity Care Service is at our sole and absolute discretion, and subject to terms and conditions which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice. You are allowed to apply for, change or revoke Incapacity Care Service, provided always that you are mentally sane at the time of making such request.

2. Incapacity Care Service does not constitute an enduring power of attorney ('EPOA') (applicable to Hong Kong) or a Power of Attorney (applicable to Macau), a guardianship order, or a committee order, and does not appoint the Designated Person as the policyowner's attorney or guardian or committee. In the event of a dispute between the Designated Person and any other person, including but not limited to the policyowner's guardian or committee, attorney (including an attorney appointed under a pre-existing EPOA or beneficiary(ies)), or there are inconsistencies or conflicts between the instructions given by the Designated Person or any other person, including but not limited to the policyowner's guardian or committee, attorney (including an attorney appointed under a pre-existing EPOA) or beneficiary(ies), the Company shall treat this as a dispute and the Company reserves the right to suspend the execution of the policy management instruction until such dispute is legally resolved.

3. You must not apply for Incapacity Care Service if you have an EPOA (applicable to Hong Kong) or has executed a Power of Attorney (applicable to Macau) or a guardian/committee appointed, and Incapacity Care Service being in conflict with them or any orders or instructions issued by valid courts or government agencies will be considered invalid.

4. The appointment of the Designated Person will be automatically revoked when (1) the Company's acceptance of the change of policy ownership, (2) the Company is being notified that the policyowner has created an EPOA (applicable to Hong Kong) or has executed a Power of Attorney (applicable to Macau) covering the policy, or (3) the Company is being notified of a committee or guardianship order in respect of the policyowner covering the policy taking effect, or (4) the Company's acceptance of a subsequent arrangement of policy assignment, or (5) the Company's acceptance of the application of premium holiday.

5. The Designated Person must be a family member of yours who has reached age 18 or above and is related to you as parent, spouse, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, niece, nephew, aunt, uncle, cousin or through any other relationship as approved by us. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for more information.

6. The Designated Person is required to provide medical reports from a registered medical practitioner confirming your diagnosis of the designated illness to our satisfaction, and any other documents or evidence we may require.

7. If a successive policyowner has been nominated for the policy and you choose Option 1 under Incapacity Care Service, the Designated Person must be the same person as the successive policyowner.

8. The application for ownership transfer to the Designated Person under Option 1 or one-off withdrawal from the policy under Option 2 will be subject to our approval and the fulfillment of our prevailing administrative rules, which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice. Once the ownership transfer to the Designated Person or the one-off withdrawal is approved by us, it cannot be changed or revoked.

9. If the Percentage is 100% under Option 2, policy surrender will be triggered automatically upon execution of the one-off withdrawal and the withdrawal amount will be paid in the amount of the surrender value after deducting any indebtedness. The policy will then be terminated automatically on the approval date of the Option 2 request by the Designated Person.

10. If the Percentage is less than 100% under Option 2, the withdrawal amount equals to (1) the surrender value multiplied by the Percentage ('Designated Amount'); and (2) less any indebtedness. The Designated Amount will be withdrawn first from (1) balance of accumulated guaranteed benefits (if any), including but not limited to any guaranteed cash payments, and subsequently be withdrawn from (2) balance of accumulated non-guaranteed benefits (if any), including but not limited to any annual dividends, non-guaranteed income and realized terminal bonus or realized special bonus (if any). If the sum of the balance of accumulated guaranteed benefits (if any) and the balance of accumulated non-guaranteed benefits (if any) is less than the Designated Amount, the remaining portion of Designated Amount will be withdrawn from (3) guaranteed cash value and non-guaranteed terminal bonus or non-guaranteed cash value of special bonus (if any) in proportion through reduction of notional amount. Kindly note that the aforementioned components for calculating the total withdrawal amount may not be applicable to your policy.

11. Any reduction in notional amount will reduce your future benefits including but not limited to the guaranteed cash value, terminal bonus, non-guaranteed special bonus (if any), any guaranteed cash payment (if the reduction in notional amount occurs before such guaranteed cash payment is payable under the policy), death benefit and accidental death benefit of the basic plan (if applicable). The notional amount after the reduction must meet the minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium requirement which we set from time to time without giving you notice. When the withdrawal results in reaching of the minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium, the actual withdrawal amount may be less than the amount calculated based on the percentage of surrender value as designated by you.

12. By making withdrawal(s), the future benefits under the policy will be reduced.

13. Please see the relevant form for more details on the terms and conditions applicable to Incapacity Care Service.

E. Death benefit settlement options

1. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for details of the applicable plans. The acceptance of the application for or the request to change the death benefit settlement option is at the Company's sole and absolute discretion and subject to terms and conditions as the Company shall determine from time to time. You are allowed to apply for or change the death benefit settlement option during the lifetime of the life insured and while the policy is in force, and you are not allowed to change the death benefit settlement option after the death of the life insured. Only policies with no more than five beneficiaries designated are eligible for the death benefit settlement option. The option that the policyowner has selected shall be applied to the payment of death benefit proceeds to all beneficiaries if more than one beneficiary is designated by the policyowner, prior to the service becoming available.

2. The death benefit settlement options are additional options to the death benefit settlement method as set out in the respective policy provisions.

3. Death benefit proceeds refer to any proceeds under the policy to be paid by the Company to the beneficiary(ies) due to the life insured's death, after deduction of any indebtedness to the Company against the policy, in accordance with basic plan provisions and supplementary benefit provisions (if any).

4. If no beneficiary(ies) survive(s) at the time of death of the life insured, the death benefit proceeds will be paid in a lump sum to the policyowner or if the policyowner is dead, the policyowner's estate. If any beneficiary(ies) die(s) after the death of the life insured, provided that the relevant death claim is approved by the Company and upon receipt of due proof of the death of such beneficiary ('Deceased Beneficiary'), the Company shall, after the earliest designated start date of the death benefit settlement, pay to the estate of the Deceased Beneficiary a lump sum in an amount equal to the Deceased Beneficiary's portion of the remaining Death benefit proceeds (if any) with interest accrued up to the later of (a) the date of death of the Deceased Beneficiary, and (b) the earliest designated start date of the death benefit settlement. If more than one beneficiary is designated by the policyowner, the surviving beneficiary(ies) shall continue to receive his/her/their respective portion(s) of the benefit amount in accordance with the instructions pre-set by the policyowner.

5. You can apply for or change the death benefit settlement option for each beneficiary by submitting a written application in a prescribed format required by us, once the service becomes available and the life insured is still living.

6. For any deferral arrangements, the payment date (in respect of lump sum payment) and payment start date (in respect of payment by instalments) should not be less than 1 year and exceed 30 years from the date of form submission or shall not be less than 1 year and exceed 30 years from the date of death of the life insured.

7. You are allowed to choose the percentage of the death benefit proceeds to be settled by instalments each year and the associated increment percentage per annum under a policy regardless of the number of beneficiaries, which shall not be set at less than 2% and shall not exceed 100% for increment respectively, which is solely determined and subject to revision by the Company from time to time without prior notice.

8. The last instalment amount may be higher or lower than previous instalment amounts, subject to the factors including but not limited to the increment percentage and the maximum period of instalments as instructed by you.

9. The instalments will end once the full amount of the death benefit proceeds is paid or the designated maximum period of instalments is reached, and any unpaid balance of the death benefit proceeds (if any) will be settled with the last instalment. For the avoidance of doubt, if the full amount of the death benefit proceeds has been paid before the end of the designated maximum period, the instalments will cease.

10. The interest rate is not guaranteed and can be adjusted by Manulife from time to time without prior notice given. The interest will be accrued from the date of claims approval. As of 22 April 2024, the non-guaranteed interest rate is as follows:

Policy currency	USD	HKD	CNY	CAD	AUD	GBP	SGD
Non-guaranteed interest rate	2.50%	1.75%	2.50%	2.50%	2.50%	1.75%	1.75%

These rates are quoted here for your reference only. For the latest interest rates, please contact your Manulife insurance advisor or call our customer service hotline on (852) 2510 3383 (if you are in Hong Kong) or (853) 8398 0383 (if you are in Macau).

11. Upon the death of the life insured, if the amount of the death benefit proceeds payable is less than USD50,000/HKD400,000/CNY335,000/CAD65,000/AUD65,000/GBP35,000/SGD85,000 (this amount is solely determined and subject to revision by the Company from time to time without prior notice), the death benefit settlement option will become invalid and the death benefit proceeds will be paid as if the death benefit settlement option has never been selected by the policyowner.

F. Contingent life insured and successive policyowner

1. The acceptance of the request for the appointment of contingent life insured is at the Company's sole and absolute discretion and subject to the terms and conditions as the Company shall determine from time to time without notice. There can only be a maximum of one contingent life insured under the policy at any time. The application for changing the life insured to the contingent life insured is subject to the prevailing administrative rules of the Company (including but not limited to age requirements) which may be determined and modified by the Company from time to time at its sole and absolute discretion and the acceptance of the application is at the Company's sole and absolute discretion. Please contact your Insurance Advisor for the latest administrative rules for the contingent life insured arrangement and the latest copy of the designated form(s).

2. Unless otherwise specified, all existing supplementary benefits (if any) under the policy will be automatically terminated on the effective date of change of life insured to contingent life insured. Any beneficiary designation previously made will be revoked automatically on the effective date of change of the life insured to contingent life insured. The 2-year period as described under the incontestability provision of the policy shall restart from the effective date of change of life insured to contingent life insured.

3. If the contingent life insured agrees to become the life insured, he/she needs to submit the application form for change of life insured to contingent life insured and relevant documents as required within 180 days from the death of the life insured. Failure to submit the application and provide satisfactory evidence of the death of the life insured, identity proof of contingent life insured, and other documents required by the Company within the prescribed period from the designated administrative form will render the contingent life insured arrangement invalid and the death proceeds will be paid to the beneficiary(ies). If the contingent life insured fails to survive the life insured, or if the contingent life insured provides written confirmation to the Company for unwilling to become the new life insured under the policy upon death of the life insured, then the contingent life insured arrangement will be terminated with immediate effect.

4. Once the application for changing the life insured to the contingent life insured is accepted and approved by the Company, the life insured under the policy will be changed from the deceased life insured to the contingent life insured from the date of death of the deceased life insured and the policy shall continue to be in force.

5. Successive policyowner must have attained the age of 18. The acceptance of the request for appointment of successive policyowner is at the Company's sole and absolute discretion and subject to terms and conditions as the Company shall determine from time to time without notice. The transfer/change of policy ownership to the successive policyowner is subject to the prevailing administrative rules of the Company. Please contact your Insurance Advisor for the latest administrative rules for successive policyowner arrangement and the latest copy of the designated form.

6. Successive policyowner must provide satisfactory evidence of the policyowner's death to the Company and is willing to take up the role as the policyowner. Any beneficiary designation previously made under the policy will be revoked automatically on the effective date of change in policy ownership.

7. The arrangements of contingent life insured and successive policyowner may be applied individually or in combinations and regardless of whether the policyowner and life insured under the policy are the same person. The relevant arrangement may be exercised upon the death of the life insured and policyowner respectively subject to the prevailing administrative rules of the Company.

G. Legacy Choice

1. Legacy Choice is only applicable to policies issued in Hong Kong.

2. Legacy Choice is applicable only to designated plans. It is an administrative arrangement and not a feature of the designated plans. To be eligible for exercising Legacy Choice, the total premium payable of the designated plan of your policy must fulfill a minimum premium requirement of HKD1,000,000 (or equivalent). The minimum premium requirement of Legacy Choice is determined by us from time to time at our sole and absolute discretion. The acceptance of any Legacy Choice application is at our sole and absolute discretion, and subject to terms and conditions which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for more information .

3. You can apply for, change or revoke the successive policyowner arrangement and/or Legacy Choice arrangement, provided that you are alive and the policy is in force.

4. To set up Legacy Choice, the successive policyowner must be either the current life insured (if the policyowner and the life insured are not the same person) or contingent life insured (if the policyowner and the life insured are the same person), as well as must be either the only beneficiary of the policy (if the policyowner and the life insured are the same person) or estate of life insured (if the policyowner and the life insured are not the same person). The Legacy Choice arrangement will be revoked automatically if (1) any subsequent change of interim policyowner and/or successive policyowner, or (2) a subsequent change of any person concerned in the policy, that is the policyowner, life insured (except for changing the life insured from the deceased life insured to the contingent life insured), beneficiary or contingent life insured, or (3) a subsequent change of the designated date or designated age of successive policyowner or the restricted policy administration right(s) applicable to interim policyowner, or (4) a subsequent arrangement of policy assignment.

5. The successive policyowner must be your family member, and related to you as parent, spouse, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, niece, nephew, aunt, uncle, cousin or through any other relationship as approved by us. If you do not set up Legacy Choice, the successive policyowner must also be aged 18 or above. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for more information.

6. The Company shall not assume any duty to verify, nor shall it be responsible for the validity or legality of any appointment of successive policyowner and/or interim policyowner. The Company shall not assume or be regarded as having assumed any responsibility or liability in relation to the appointment of any successive policyowner and/or interim policyowner.

7. The actual attained age at which the successive policyowner takes up the policy on the designated date must be 18 or above.

8. The interim policyowner must be a family member of the successive policyowner who has reached age 21 or above and related to the successive policyowner as parent, spouse, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, niece, nephew, aunt, uncle, cousin or through any other relationship as approved by us. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for more information.

9. Interim policyowner is not authorized to exercise any policy administration rights that would (1) result in change in any person concerned in the policy, that is, the policyowner, the life insured, the beneficiary, the contingent life insured, or the successive policyowner, (2) set up or change administrative arrangement(s) applicable to the policy and (3) result in change in policy values (except those policy administration right(s) granted by you), including but not limited to executing a policy split (if applicable) and applying for policy loans. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for more information.

10. The withdrawal amount will first be paid from (1) any balance of accumulated guaranteed benefits, including but not limited to any guaranteed cash payments (if any), and subsequently be paid from (2) any balance of accumulated non-guaranteed benefits, including but not limited to any annual dividends (if any), non-guaranteed income and realized terminal bonus or realized special bonus (if any). Any remaining amount will be withdrawn from (3) the guaranteed cash value and non-guaranteed terminal bonus or non-guaranteed cash value of special bonus (if any) in proportion through reduction of notional amount. If the withdrawal triggers a reduction of notional amount, it will be subject to the applicable minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium requirements, and any indebtedness will be deducted from the withdrawal amount that is to be paid. Kindly note that the aforementioned components for calculating the total withdrawal amount may not be applicable to your policy. The total withdrawal amount in each policy year or from this policy (if applicable) cannot exceed the maximum percentage (specified by you) multiplied by the policy value as at the later of (1) the day we approve the request of Legacy Choice arrangement, or (2) the respective policy anniversary.

11. If you pass away after the successive policyowner has attained the designated age or after the designated date, the successive policyowner will directly assume ownership of the policy and the Legacy Choice arrangement will be terminated.

12. The interim policyowner/successive policyowner must provide satisfactory evidence of the policyowner's death to the Company within the prescribed period from the designated administrative form when applying for a change of policy ownership and of the interim policyowner's/successive policyowner's willingness to take up the role of policyowner.

13. The change of policy ownership to the interim policyowner/successive policyowner is subject to the prevailing administrative rules of the Company.

14. The acceptance of the application for the appointment of the contingent life insured is at our sole and absolute discretion, and subject to terms and conditions which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice. There can be no more than one contingent life insured under the policy at any time.

15. The application for changing the life insured to the contingent life insured is subject to the prevailing administrative rules (including but not limited to the maximum age requirement for change of life insured) which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time at our sole and absolute discretion and the acceptance of the application is at our sole and absolute discretion.

16. Please see the relevant form for more details on the terms and conditions applicable to successive policyowner (with Legacy Choice).

H. InheritPlus

1. InheritPlus is only applicable to Genesis Centurion Insurance Plan and Prestige Achiever Insurance Plan ('Designated Plans'). It is an administrative arrangement and not a product feature of the Designated Plans. The acceptance of any application for or change of InheritPlus is at the Company's sole and absolute discretion. It is subject to our prevailing administrative rules and conditions, as well as terms and conditions outlined below which shall be determined and modified by us from time to time without prior notice. Please contact your Manulife insurance advisor for the latest administrative rules.

2. You can apply for, change or cancel InheritPlus by submitting a written application in a prescribed format required by us, once the service becomes available and the life insured is still living. Any changes or cancellation, including but not limited to contingent lives insureds, successive policyowners and beneficiaries, is subject to our prevailing administrative rules and conditions, and will only take effect upon our approval. The Company reserves the right to determine and modify the administrative rules and conditions from time to time without prior notice.

3. Once InheritPlus is exercised, Easy Choice, FlexiPay Withdrawal and Empowered Access for Loved Ones will be terminated immediately.

4. When a policy is split under InheritPlus, the total premiums paid, any premium due and payable, any prepayment, any indebtedness, and the policy values of the original policy will be proportionally allocated to the New Policy(ies) according to the notional amount allocation pre-set by the policyowner, subject to rounding differences.

5. In case the realization option has been exercised under the original policy, such aggregate realization percentage will be applied to the New Policy(ies). For the avoidance of doubt, if Body and Mind Advance Benefit has been exercised under the original policy, it will not be available under the New Policy(ies).

6. All existing supplementary benefits (if any) under the original policy will be automatically terminated upon the issuance of the New Policy(ies). The 2-year period described under the 'Incontestability' provision of the policy shall restart from the effective date of the New Policy(ies).

7. Under InheritPlus, each contingent life insured must be assigned a successive policyowner at the same time, with a maximum of 5 contingent lives insureds and 5 successive policyowners. For the avoidance of doubt, either one contingent life Insured/successive policyowner or one InheritPlus set up is allowed. For details of contingent life insured and successive policyowner, please refer to the relevant sections in this booklet.

8. If the contingent life insured and/or successive policyowner under the New Policy(ies) fail to take up the policy, we will pay the death benefit as a lump sum to the beneficiary(ies).

9. Under the InheritPlus, the death benefit proceeds can be paid in a lump sum and/or through an alternative death benefit settlement option for each beneficiary. For details of the death benefit settlement option, please refer to the relevant sections in this booklet.

10. The aggregate allocation for the contingent life insured and the beneficiaries must equal 100% of the notional amount of the original policy, subject to the minimum notional amount and/or minimum premium requirement of the Designated Plans.

11. InheritPlus will be terminated if:
    i. The policyowner submits a cancel request;
    ii. The policy is terminated; or
    iii. There is a change of life insured or ownership, split of policy or anexercise of currency switch option;
    whichever happens first.

In this booklet, 'you' and 'your' refer to the policyowner. 'Manulife', 'Company', 'we', 'us' and 'our' refer to Manulife (International) Limited.

This booklet is for reference only. For more information, please contact your Manulife insurance advisor or call our customer service hotline on (852) 2510 3383 (if you are in Hong Kong) or (853) 8398 0383 (if you are in Macau).

To view our Privacy Policy, you can go to our website at www.manulife.com.hk. You may also ask us not to use your personal information for direct marketing purposes by writing to us at the address below. We will not charge you a fee for this.

This leaflet is for distribution in Hong Kong and Macau only, but not in Chinese Mainland.

Manulife (International) Limited (A subsidiary of Manulife Financial Corporation)
Hong Kong: 22/F, Tower A, Manulife Financial Centre, 223-231 Wai Yip Street, Kwun Tong, Kowloon, Hong Kong
Macau: Avenida De Almeida Ribeiro No. 61, Manulife Plaza, 14 andar A, Macau

MKTPP205E (01/2026)